LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING

RE: RETENTION & RECRUITMENT INITIATIVES

WHEREAS the parties agree that:

- Recruitment is a critical factor in addressing retention and workload concerns of current Employees.
- It is anticipated that over the next ten years, large numbers of senior Employees will retire. Succession planning must address the loss in numbers, as well as the loss of experience. Simultaneously, there will be an increased demand for Services to the system, given the changing demographics.
- Recruitment approaches must balance the need for new Employees, while respecting current Employees.
- It is desirable to recruit and retain both experienced Employees and Employees entering the workforce.
- The retention of current Employees and recruitment of new Employees are shared priority issues.

- In addition to improved working terms and conditions in the current Collective Agreement, additional strategies will be required to address the nursing shortage.
